Michael and John were taking a trip to the Bahamas. They travelled there on a huge _____ which had loads of entertainment and extraordinary buffets for them to enjoy. Michael enjoyed the dessert buffet the most, whilst John preferred the pre-dinner buffet with all the savory snacks. Which buffet would you enjoy the most?

When they arrived in the Bahamas, there were all sorts of water activities for them to enjoy! They first decided to go _____ on the ocean. Michael's _____ was red, and John's yellow. The _____ were very buoyant and they weren't too worried about toppling over; although the ocean was so nice and warm the idea didn't phase them too much. Have you ever been _____? Would you like to?

The following day, the boys joined a group of friends on a _____. It was huge and pristine, and gleamed under the hot Bahamian sun. They jumped off the _____, making a huge splash when they landed in the water. They were also served a delicious meal and spent the day relaxing on the deck. What would you enjoy doing if you spent the day on a _____?

When it was time to return to land, a _____ took them back to the island. The engines roared as it sped along the surface of the ocean, bouncing at intervals. They held on tight whenever they'd lurch into the air, but loved every minute of the trip. When they arrived at their destination, they were offered a trip out the following day on the _____ to go fishing! They politely declined, as they had other plans. Have you ever been on a _____? Or fishing?

Their plans for the following day did not disappoint. Their resort was holding a themed event on pirates! All the staff were dressed up as pirates, and the guests were taken out on a _____ for the day. Wow! The boys also got into character by wearing pirate hats and carrying swords. Aaargh! What would you like to dress up as?

Unfortunately the wind started to pick up, so Michael and John were a bit concerned about the next day's activities. However, the concierge suggested taking advantage of the wind to go _____ for the day. At the crack of dawn, before the weather picked up even more, they joined some crew on a _____. It was wet and wonderful! Have you ever been out on a _____?

Before heading inland, the boys had one more adventurous water activity to try. ____! They each had their own _____ for a few hours, and whizzed over the ocean at quite some speed. It felt like they were on motorbikes... But on the ocean! By the end of their time at the resort, they were tanned and stress-free. What a wonderful time they'd had at the resort! Can you tell us about a wonderful activity that you have done?

As their vacation was drawing to an end, Michael and John spent some quiet time on the shores of Lake Cunningham in the Bahamas. They decided it was time for some much needed R&R. The boys decided to try and catch their own fish for dinner, so took a small _____ onto the lake with some fishing rods to see what they could catch. Much to their dismay, they had no luck, and returned to shore empty handed. They decided to get takeouts instead. What would you order?

Never deterred for too long, they decided to go out onto the lake in a _____ the following day. It was very wobbly and quite heavy to carry down to the lake, but once they were settled into the _____ they enjoyed the tranquility of the surroundings. Michael had brought along a fishing rod in the hopes of catching a fish on this trip. And to his delight, he did! Do you like eating fish? What is your favourite seafood?

And that was that. Their vacation in the Bahamas had drawn to an end. Michael and John had experienced so many new adventures and activities. I wonder what methods of transportation we haven't tried yet? They mused.

John put on his thinking cap and gave it a think. "Hmmm..." He said. "I can think of one! It's a popular tourist activity in Venice, Italy! Very romantic!"

Can you guess what he is thinking of? Have you been on a _____ before? Or been to Italy?

"My turn next!" Exclaimed Michael.

"This is used to transport people and their vehicles across lakes, rivers and short distances of salt water. It's not a bridge, but is very useful indeed!"

John contemplated on what it could be. But he was dumbfounded.

"I have no idea what it could be!"

Can you tell John what method of transportation Michael is thinking of? Have you ever taken a _____?
